

Eighth Inch Rock: while reducing water usage in the production process, pavers and block can have decorative surface when this multicolored rock is used. It is also an important size for use in asphalt road surfacing.

